USCIS
Form G-325A

If you have any questions on how to complete the form, call our USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283. For TTY (hearing impaired) call: 1-800-767-1833.

Who May File Form G-325A?

If you are inside the United States, you may request deferred action (other than deferred action related to Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), Violence Against Women Act self-petitions, and A-3, G-5, T and U nonimmigrant status) from USCIS by submitting this form and supporting evidence.

NOTE: You may only use this form to request deferred action based on special immigrant juvenile (SIJ) classification in the following circumstances:

- To request an initial grant of SIJ deferred action if you have an approved SIJ-based Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant, a visa is not immediately available to file Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, and you did not previously receive a notice that you were considered for SIJ deferred action; or

If we determine an appointment is necessary, we will send you an appointment notice with the date, time, and location of your appointment. If you are currently overseas, your notice will instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to schedule an appointment.

You must submit evidence to demonstrate that you warrant deferred action as a matter of discretion. For more information, please see: www.uscis.gov/g-325a.

NOTE: You may select more than one filing type. For example, if you are a special immigrant juvenile and believe you are stateless, then you may select each of the boxes corresponding to those filing types. If you select more than one filing type, you should provide a brief statement and supportive evidence for each filing type selected.

- A. Labor Investigation Based (LIB DA): You must check this box and submit any evidence to demonstrate that you warrant deferred action as a matter of discretion. You must also provide a Statement of Interest from the labor agency addressed to DHS.
- B. Special Immigrant Juvenile (SIJ DA): You must check this box and submit evidence that you were approved for SIJ classification, and, if you are requesting a subsequent period of deferred action, evidence of your prior grant of SIJ deferred action (for example, a copy of a Form I-797, Notice of Action, for Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant). You must also submit any evidence to demonstrate that you warrant deferred action as a matter of discretion.
- C. Spouse, Widow(er), Parent, Son, or Daughter of Active Duty Service Member of U.S. Armed Forces or Individual in the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve (MIL DA): Select this box only if you are applying as a spouse, widow(er), parent, son, or daughter of an individual who is currently serving on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces. You must check this box and submit any evidence to demonstrate that you warrant deferred action as a matter of discretion. You must also demonstrate your relationship with the serviceperson, and evidence of their service.
- D. Spouse, Widow(er), Parent, Son, or Daughter of Individual (Whether Living or Deceased) who Previously Served on Active Duty or in the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve (and was not Dishonorably Discharged) (MIL DA): Select this box only if you are applying as a spouse, widow(er), parent, son, or daughter of an individual (whether living or deceased) who previously served in the U.S. Armed Forces or Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve and honorably discharged. - F. Statelessness: You must check this box and submit any evidence to demonstrate that you are stateless (if available) and demonstrate that you warrant deferred action as a matter of discretion.

G. Government Referral (Other than a Labor Agency): You must check this box and submit any evidence to demonstrate that you warrant deferred action as a matter of discretion. This includes deferred action supported by Local, State, or Federal Governments. You must also provide a statement from the supporting government agency addressed to DHS supporting the request for deferred action.

H. Other: You must check this box and submit any evidence to demonstrate that you warrant deferred action as a matter of discretion.

- 3. Supporting Statement. Provide a brief statement as to why you believe your request for deferred action should be considered and why you believe you warrant deferred action as a matter of discretion. If extra space is needed for the explanation, use the space provided in Part 8. Additional Information.

Part 3. Employment Authorization

- 1. Employment Authorization. If you are also requesting employment authorization upon a grant of deferred action, select “Yes.” If your deferred action request is not granted, the request for employment authorization would also not be granted.
- 2. Economic Necessity. You must establish economic necessity for employment. In the spaces provided, indicate your current annual income, current annual expenses, and the total current value of your assets. If extra space is needed for the explanation of economic need, use the space provided in Part 8. Additional Information.

NOTE: If you are applying for employment authorization based on SIJ DA, you do not need to provide evidence of economic necessity.

Supporting evidence is not required, but USCIS will accept and review any documentation submitted. You do not need to include other household members’ financial information to establish economic necessity.

NOTE: You are also required to provide the applicable filing fee when requesting employment authorization, with the exception of those requesting employment authorization based on a grant of SIJ deferred action. A request for employment authorization for those with SIJ deferred action is fee exempt. Requesting employment authorization upon a grant of deferred action using the Form G-325A is an alternative to submitting a separate Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, under the (c)(14) employment authorization category and subject to the General Filing fee category. If you would like to submit a fee waiver request for the employment authorization, you may file Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver, with this application. Instructions are available at: www.uscis.gov/i-912. Failure to submit the appropriate fee or a fee waiver request could result in USCIS denying your request for employment authorization.

Part 4. Social Security Card

If you select “Yes” in Part 3. Employment Authorization, Item Number 1., you must complete Item Numbers 1. – 3. You must have a Social Security Number (SSN) properly assigned in your name to work in the United States. However, you are not required to request a social security card using this request. If you want a Social Security Card, follow the instructions below.

NOTE: If your deferred action and employment authorization are not granted through this request, you will not receive a social security card through this process.

Item Numbers 1. – 3. Questions Regarding Social Security Number (SSN). If you want the Social Security Administration (SSA) to issue you an original or replacement Social Security card, then answer “Yes” to both Item Numbers 1. and 3. in Part 4., which gives your consent for USCIS to provide your information to the SSA. You must also provide your parents’ family and given names at birth, even if the parent is now deceased, in Part 1., Item Numbers 15. and 21. SSA will use Part 1., Item Numbers 15. and 21. in issuing you a Social Security card.

If you want a replacement card, you must enter the SSN from your card in Part 4., Item Number 2. If you provide your Consent for Disclosure in Part 4., Item Number 3., then if USCIS grants your deferred action request, we will provide information from your request and USCIS systems to the SSA. The SSA may assign you an SSN and issue you an original or replacement Social Security card.

NOTE: If you are unable to complete any of the questions in Part 1, SSA may not be able to process your SSN and Social Security card request and you will need to contact your local Social Security office.

If you have not received your Social Security Card within 14 days after you receive your EAD, please contact your local Social Security office. To locate a Social Security office, you can use the Social Security Office Locator available on the SSA website at <https://secure.ssa.gov/ICON/main.jsp>.

If your employer uses E-Verify to confirm new employees' eligibility to legally work in the United States, the information you provide on Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification, will be compared to data in SSA and DHS databases. Employees must have an SSN in order for E-Verify to confirm their eligibility to legally work in the United States.

Applicants covered by these confidentiality provisions may not waive them and should contact SSA after the approval of their Form I-765.

Part 7. Contact Information, Certification, and Signature of the Person Preparing this Request, if Other Than the Requestor. The person who completed your request, if other than the requestor, must sign this section.
