PURPOSE: This supplement must be completed for every adult member of the household, other than the applicant/petitioner and spouse (if married). USCIS may request submission of this supplemental form for additional individuals. The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this supplement is to collect information on any individual who has the same residence as the applicant/petitioner and is 18 years of age or older on or before the date the applicant/petitioner files Form I-600A or Form I-600, any household member who has not yet turned 18 years of age before the applicant/petitioner files Form I-600A or Form I-600, and any individual who does not actually live at the same residence as the applicant/petitioner, but whose presence USCIS deems relevant to determine the applicant/petitioner's suitability to adopt. USCIS will determine suitability by conducting background and security checks on adult household members to assist in assessing the suitability of the applicant/petitioner. The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) uses the information you provide to grant or deny the immigration benefit the applicant/petitioner is seeking.

However, failure to provide the requested information, including your Social Security number (if applicable), and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision or result in USCIS denying the underlying adoption-related application and/or petition.
